

Barnum 104
163 Packard Ave
(top of the hill, in the Academic Quad)
Tufts University
Somerville

VIRGINIA SETSHEDI

Teach-In
on the World Bank/
IMF

7-9PM
Saturday,
April 17th

A 10-15 minute walk from Davis T station. From Davis, walk down College Ave, past the Powderhouse rotary, and take a left onto Talbot Ave. Take a right onto Packard Ave. Walk past Professor's Row. Soon you will see the Academic Quad on your right at the top of the hill.

Barnum is one of the first buildings on your right.

In preparation for the mobilization to Washington, DC for the 60th anniversary of the World Bank, come and engage with local and international activists about global economic issues.

VICTOR GERONIMO - Dominican Republic
COMPA/Coordination of Popular, Union, and Drivers Organizations

Victor Geronimo belongs to the National Directory of the Unity and Struggle Coordination, which recently directed the two most powerful general strikes of the last two decades of Dominican history, against the IMF, the FTAA, the Interamerican Development Bank (IADB) and other international banks. He is also the General Facilitator for the Convergence of Movements of Peoples of the Americas-COMPA-(2002-2004). This network unites popular, campesino, indigenous, religious, student, women's, community organizations, and unions against corporate globalization, FTAA, WTO, IADB, and IMF, and develops alternatives to them.

VIRGINIA SETSHEDI – Cape Town, South Africa
Soweto Electricity Crisis Committee/Anti-Privatisation Forum

Virginia Setshedi comes from Soweto. Her activism started while she was a student at the University of the Witwatersrand. She is a founding member of the Soweto Electricity Crisis Committee, established in 2000 to take up the struggle of inefficient electricity provision for the poor in Soweto and privatisation of electricity. Virginia also helped establish the Anti-Privatisation Forum in Johannesburg, and now participates in the Anti-Privatisation Forum in Cape Town, a forum that brings together community organisations who are affected by privatisation in a broader sense. Presently she is working with the Alternative Information and Development Centre in Cape Town.

JUDITH ALEXANDRE- Local activist

Judith Alexandre is a local activist working on economic justice issues effecting Haiti and the Haitian immigrant community.

Presented by BankBusters (www.BankBusters.org), Somerville/Medford United for Justice with Peace, Tufts University International Relations/ Women's Studies, and Jobs with Justice, in conjunction with 50 Years is Enough (www.50years.org). For more information, call 617-755-0795 or email us at noimfwb@yahoo.com.